If child care, health insurance, transportation, special education or other special expenses change, each party's share of such an expense shall be re-allocated in proportion to income. Any change in an item that has been ordered to be paid shall be documented, and documentation shall be furnished to the other parent (within 30 days for health insurance and within 45 days for others). Upon receipt of change documentation, the other parent shall be responsible for, or given credit for, a percentage share of the amount of the change. Uninsured health care expenses, whether or not initially ordered in a specific amount, shall also be proportionally shared. The parent who incurs the health care expense shall provide documentation of such expense within 45 days of incurring the expense or within 45 days of receipt of an Explanation of Benefits document from an insurance provider. Thereafter, the responsible parent shall pay his or her share of the health care expense within 45 days.
